RIGHTS OF RECEIVERS .- In the case of Hooc ct al. vs. Wilson, from the Supreme Court of this district, the Supreme Court of the United States, yesterday, held that the receiver of property appointed by the court could not be a purchaser at the judicial sale of such property, in consequence of his fiduciary relations to it. and to all the parties, as trustee. Wilson, as receiver of certain property in the District, lad become the purchaser at the sale, and claimed that he had a right to do so, because his fidu ciary relations did not extend to the property itself, but only to the rents and incomes therefrom. The decree below was reversed. - Wash. Republican.

DEBT OF VA .- We hear nothing more of the debt commission. We do not know whether any of our commissioners have accepted or whether all have. The Virginia commissioners were instructed to make a report in sixty days, but that is impracticable of course, for the sixty days since their appointment have already run out. Practically, no time will be lost, because no action beyond the preliminary nction of the commissioners can be taken till their reports have been submitted to the Leg islatures of both States, and ours will not be in session till next January .- Wheeling Intell.
